Mr. J. J. Tower sends the following lullaby, which she learned in childhood and has never seen in print or in manuscript.

Come hither, little restless one, The time to shut your eyes.

You do not hear the robin sing— They're singing within their nest.

The very violet in blue bed, Food for its little blue.

Will Mrs. Tower send a two-cent stamp for a T. S. S. pin? Her name has been entered. A "draw" will be on the roll. Are Grace Fowler and Mrs. J. J. the same?

H. L. C.—Your poem is rather long for the Sunshine column, but it will be passed on. It entitles you to membership, and if you will send your full name and address, with a two-cent stamp, the club badge will be sent to you.
